History

- Points for discussion:*
- What are maps for?
 - When might we need to use maps?
 - How should we hold a map?
 - Can you draw a map of your local area?
 - Where have you seen people using maps?

Create a model of your local area using empty cartons from home

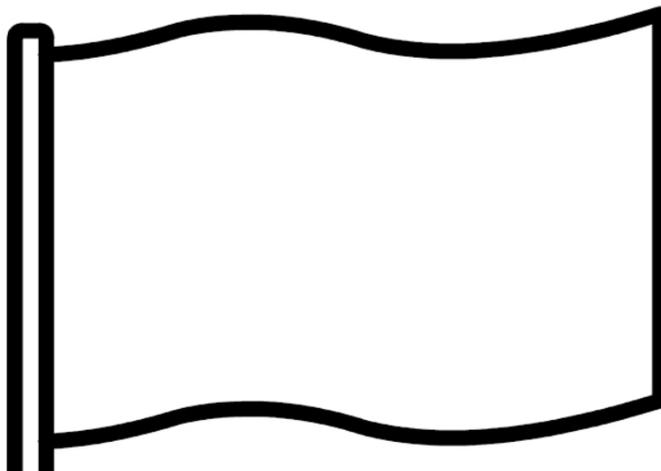

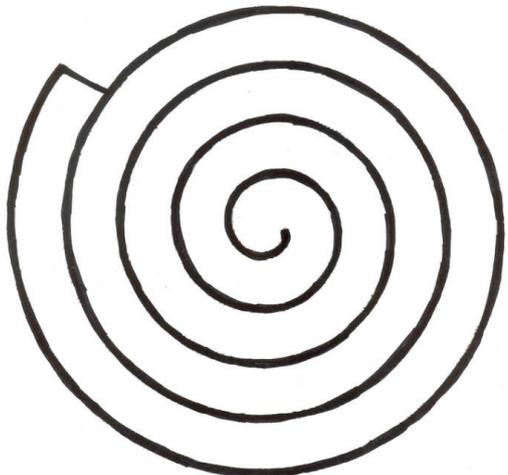

RE

What questions have you got about what happens when we die?

Draw on the board a stick person with a speech bubble containing a question mark coming out of their mouth. Share with the children that the person is sad because their dog has died. Ask the children to write any questions that this person might have about death.

PSHE: Being Me in my world

On the spiral template they write any worries they have about the year ahead. Then they cut around the spiral so it opens as a tree hanging/ mobile. Then n the flag template they write or draw a hope or dream for the year ahead.
