RE

Do you get to heaven if you do things wrong?

Divide pupils into groups to find out about beliefs about judgement and reaching heaven or paradise in Christianity or Islam. Envoy information to other groups. Ticket to paradise Ask the pupils to make a ticket for a Christian and a Muslim for heaven or paradise. On the ticket they must show 'terms and conditions' for reaching heaven or paradise. What is the difference between the two tickets? What would be on the ticket for a Hindu?

PSHE

1. What is your favourite subject at school?
2. Write 3 words to describe how you feel about coming to this school
3. Write 3 words to describe how you feel about going to secondary school?
4. What is your ambition for when you leave school?
5. What is your favourite chocolate bar?

This is a raw cocoa.

Before it can get made into the chocolate we eat it needs to be processed in factories. Cocoa grows in warm countries like Ghana. Often extra sugar is added to raw cocoa before it's turned into chocolate bars, this makes it expensive. Raw cocoa isn't very sweet.

There are many cocoa farms (plantations) in Ghana.

The workers on these farms often include school-age children. Harvesting the cocoa can be demanding work in hot and dirty conditions. Wages are low.

Many children have to work on the plantations and go to school, as well as do housework and chores at home. Some children do not go to school at all. Many Ghanaian children don't get to eat the chocolate they help to harvest because it is too expensive.

These children do not go to school.

Their families feel it is better for them to work on the cocoa plantation rather than get an education. Some of the children in this picture have dreams to be teachers and doctors.

How do you feel about chocolate now

Write your response to the question or draw a picture to represent how you feel.
